

For release: October 12, 2018

Patrick J. Vrabel of Brown & Brown Insurance of Lehigh Valley Appointed to Board Member Position for the Volunteer Center of Lehigh Valley

Bethlehem, PA - Patrick J. Vrabel, Brown & Brown Insurance of Lehigh Valley Employee Benefits Team Leader has recently been appointed to a board member position for the Volunteer Center of Lehigh Valley. Mr. Vrabel and many employees at Brown & Brown of Lehigh Valley are active participants in VCLA's Holiday Hope Chests program, and with Mr. Vrabel's appointment, they will continue as well as expand their service efforts to the organization. Brown & Brown employees have ample opportunities to volunteer their time with many non-profits in the region and offered the ability to provide community service during the work-day once a year.

Patrick Vrabel started with Brown & Brown in 2011 as a producer for the Employee Benefits department. In 2014 he was promoted to his current position of team leader where his focus is to achieve client satisfaction and trust. Currently he manages all comprehensive services, product offerings and customized solutions to the employee benefits clients of Brown & Brown of Lehigh Valley.

Patrick graduated from Mansfield University in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration. He is a resident of the Lehigh Valley with his wife Tiffany and their three children. He enjoys spending time with his family, exercising, and listening to music. As an avid sports fan, Patrick's community service expands into coaching for soccer, basketball and baseball through the local Catholic Youth Organization. He and his family are also actively involved in their church.

The Volunteer Center of the Lehigh Valley is committed to educating, motivating and coordinating programs and services in promotion of engaging volunteers in our community. Their mission is "to be the premier resource to connect, empower and transform an inclusive and engaged diverse culture within the Greater Lehigh Valley by partnering with people, businesses and nonprofits through volunteer coordination, leadership development and recognition. For additional information, visit www.volunteerlv.org, email vc@volunteerlv.org, or call 610-807-0336.